For there will be plague upon plague, and curse upon curse, and every judgment and plague and curse will come (upon him): if he do this thing, or hide his eyes from those who commit uncleanness, or those who defile the sanctuary of the Lord, or those who profane His holy name, (then) will the whole nation together be judged for all the uncleanness and profanation of this (man). 16. And there will be no respect of persons [and no consideration of persons], and no receiving at his hands of fruits and offerings and burnt-offerings and fat, nor the fragrance of sweet savour, so as to accept it: and so fare every man or woman in Israel who defiles the sanctuary. 17. For this reason I have commanded thee, saying: "Testify this testimony to Israel: see how the Shechemites fared and their sons: how they were delivered into the hands of two sons of Jacob, and they slew them under tortures, and it was (reckoned) unto them for righteousness, and it is written down to them for righteousness. 18. or takes to wife a Gentile woman will affect the whole community. These verses are based on Lev. xx. 2-4, which deal with the man who gives his seed unto Moloch.

15. (Upon him). Added from the Latin.

Hide his eyes. This is the phrase in Lev. xx. 4, חָעִיִּים עֵינָיו. The Latin, praeterierit et despexerit, seems to be a dittography.

Who commit uncleanness . . . defile the sanctuary of the Lord . . . profane His holy name. Cf. Lev. xx. 3, "Hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary . . . to profane my holy name."

All the uncleanness (a b and Latin). c d "all this uncleanness."

Profanation of this (man). MSS read "this profanation." I have emended in accordance with the Latin.

16. [And no consideration of persons]. Bracketed as a dittography. Latin omits.

The fragrance of sweet savour. Latin: odorabitur odore suavitatis.

18. The ground for Levi's appointment to the priesthood is quite different in xxxii. 3. Levi is there consecrated to the work of the priesthood as the tithe or tenth in Jacob's family. Our author has thus made use of two conflicting traditions. Possibly a third is
