

<sup>1</sup> Ye knowe partly my cōfancie bothe by my dwelling with you, and also my writing vnto you: and I trust ye shal knowe me to be the same to y very end. <sup>m</sup> In that we haue taught you y Gospel so syncerely. <sup>n</sup> Because we haue wōne you to Christ. <sup>o</sup> Which shal abolish all worldelie glorie. <sup>p</sup> Which is rather to promys and not to performe. <sup>q</sup> Now to asseme one thing, and then to de my it, which is a signe of incōfancie. <sup>r</sup> He taketh God to witness that he preacheth y truth: f He preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ who is the moe constant and infallible truth of the Father. <sup>s</sup> They are made, performed & we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for vs. Ephē. 4. 30. <sup>u</sup> In that I say I came not because I wolde spare you, I meane not that I haue auctoritie to alter true religiō, or to binde your cōsciences: but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you. <sup>v</sup> And faith is not in subiection to man.

<sup>13</sup> For we write none other things vnto you, then y ye read or els that ye acknowledge, & I trust ye shal acknowledge vnto the end.

<sup>14</sup> Euen as ye haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioycing, euen as ye are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

<sup>15</sup> And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a double grace,

<sup>16</sup> And to passe by you into Macedonia, & to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forthe towarde Iudea of you.

<sup>17</sup> When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnes? or minde I those things which I minde, according to y flesh, that w me shulde be, <sup>1</sup> Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

<sup>18</sup> Yea, <sup>r</sup> God is faithful, that our worde towarde you was not Yea, and Nay.

<sup>19</sup> For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay; but in him it was <sup>r</sup> Yea.

<sup>20</sup> For all the promises of God in him are <sup>r</sup> Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs.

<sup>21</sup> And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs.

<sup>22</sup> Who hath also sealed vs, & hath giue the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

<sup>23</sup> Now, I call God for a recorde vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

<sup>24</sup> Not that we haue dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioye: for by <sup>x</sup> faith ye stande.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards them, 7 Requiring like wise that they wolde be fauorable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine. 17 Consuting thereby suche quarelpickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his persone, sege nothing, but the overthrowe of his doctrine.

<sup>1</sup> BUT I determined thus in my self, that I wolde not come againe to you in heauines.

<sup>2</sup> For if I make you sorie, who is he then that shulde make me glad, but the same which is made <sup>a</sup> sorie by me?

<sup>3</sup> And I wrote <sup>b</sup> this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I shulde take heauines of them, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all.

<sup>4</sup> For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye shulde be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

<sup>5</sup> And if any hath caused sorow, the same hath not made me sorie, but partely (lest I shulde <sup>d</sup> more charge him) you all.

<sup>6</sup> It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of manie.

<sup>8</sup> Wherefore, I praye you, that you wolde <sup>f</sup> confirme your loue towards him.

<sup>9</sup> For this cause also did I write, y I might knowe the prose of you, whether ye wolde be obedient in all things.

<sup>10</sup> To whome ye forgiue anie thing, I forgiue also: for verely if I forgave anie thing, to whome I forgave it, for your sakes for giue I it in the sight of Christ,

<sup>12</sup> Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preache, Christs Gospel, & a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord,

<sup>13</sup> I had no rest in my spirit, because I founde not Titus my brother, but toke my leaue of the, and went away into Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup> Now thanks be vnto God which alwayes maketh vs <sup>k</sup> to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euerie place.

<sup>15</sup> For we are vnto God the swete sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, and in them which perish.

<sup>16</sup> To the one we are the <sup>l</sup> sauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the sauour of life, vnto life, <sup>m</sup> and who is sufficient for these things?

<sup>17</sup> For we are not as manie, <sup>n</sup> which make marchandise of the worde of God: but as of synceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we in Christ.

<sup>k</sup> In working mightly by vs he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph. <sup>l</sup> The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christs death as a comune death, & be thereat offended, or els thinke it folie: & bringeth againe life to the who in his death beholde their life. <sup>m</sup> That is, he preache for gaine, & corrupt it to seue mens afflictions. Or, through Christ, or of Christ

CHAP. III.

<sup>1</sup> He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. <sup>6</sup> And to exalte his Apostleship against the bragges of the false apostles. <sup>7. 13</sup> He maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

<sup>1</sup> DO we begine to praise our selues againe? or nede we as some other, epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

<sup>2</sup> Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnder stand and red of all men, <sup>3</sup> In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ, <sup>b</sup> ministred by vs, and written, not with yncke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in <sup>c</sup> tables of stone, but in fleshlie tables of the heart.

<sup>4</sup> And suche trust haue we through Christ to God:

<sup>a</sup> Meaning himself, Timotheus and Siluanus. <sup>b</sup> Who were Gods penne. <sup>c</sup> The hardness of mans heart before he be regenerated, is as a Roynie table. Eze. 11. 19. & 36. 26: but being regenerated by the Spirit of God, it is as softe as flesh, y the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in new tables. Ier 31. 34.

Not

<sup>a</sup> Which was giuen to Satan but now doth repent. <sup>b</sup> Which made you & him sorry in my former epistle.
