

27. Nothing shall be entered in an identity certificate otherwise than in accordance with a provision of a Law or of regulations made by the Minister of the Interior.

Prohibition of entry in identity certificate.

28. (a) A registration officer may require the holder of a certificate to submit it for the purpose of entering a change in a particular of registration or if the certificate is worn out or has expired or if the photograph no longer correctly represents the holder.

Power to call in identity certificate.

(b) Where in dealing with an identity certificate it appears to a registration officer that any change, correction, addition or deletion has been made therein unlawfully, he may retain such identity certificate until the matter has been fully examined.

CHAPTER FIVE : RECEIPT OF INFORMATION

29. (a) Any person may receive information concerning, or a copy of or extract from, the entry in the Registry relating to him.

Information.

(b) Any person may receive information concerning the name and address of any other person registered in the Registry.

(c) A person who is prima facie interested may receive information as to the date of birth, and other particulars of registration determined by regulations, of a person registered in the Registry.

30. (a) A person born in Israel who is registered in the Registry may receive a birth certificate.

Birth and death certificates.

(b) A person who is prima facie interested may receive a birth certificate or death certificate of another person registered in the register if the birth or death took place in Israel.

31. The Registry and the documents therein shall not be open for inspection except to the following for the purpose of the discharge of their duties:

Inspection of Registry.

(1) The Minister of the Interior or a person empowered by him in that behalf;

(2) the Minister of Defence or a person empowered by him in that behalf;

(3) the Attorney General or his representative;

(4) the Inspector-General of Police or a person empowered by him in that behalf;

(5) a person empowered in that behalf by a civil or religious court for the purposes of a specific matter pending before it;

(6) a marriage registrar or a person empowered in that behalf by a marriage registrar.

32. Sections 29 to 31 shall not derogate from the provisions of section 27 of the Adoption of Children Law, 5720-1960¹⁾, and particulars

Information as to adoption.

¹⁾ Sefer Ha-Chukkim of 5720, p. 96; LSI vol. XIV, p. 93.