

A.D. 1620.
18 Jac. 1.

ty me to tyme during our pleasure, to hear all and every the Offences and Offendors aforesaide, and to proceede against them and every of them, either according to the forme of the Lawe Ecclesiasticall, or summarily according to the grave Wisdomes and Discretions of you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaide, and likewise to order and determyne the same, useing and inflicting such Censures and Punishments only as are hereafter mentioned and prescribed;

And if you, or any such three or more of you as is aforesaide, shall find by Confession of the Parrye, or other sufficient proof, any Person or Persons to have offended in the Premisses or any of them, or refusing to obey, or performe your Orders, Decrees and Commandements in any things touching the Premisses or any part thereof, that then you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid, shall have full Power and Authority, and we doe hereby give unto you, and every three or more of you as is aforesaid, full Power and Authority in that behalfe to punish the same Person or Persons soe offending, by Censures Ecclesiasticall, or by reasonable Fyne and Imprisonmente according to the quality and quantity of their Offences, or by all or any the said meanes according to your Discretions: And when any Person shall be convented or prosecuted before you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid, for any of the Offences above expressed, at the instance and suite of any Person promoting the Office in that behalf; that then you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaide, shall have full Power and Authority, by these Presents, to award such Costs and Expenses of the Suite, as well to and against the Parrye that shall preferre and prosecute the same Offence, as to and against any Party or Parties that shall be convented, according as the Causes shall require and to you in Justice shall be thought reasonable; and if the said Costs and Expenses, so by you taxed or assessed as aforesaid, be not paid according to your Order in that behalf, then it shall and may be lawfull to and for you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid, and we do by these Presents give and grant to you, and every three or more of you as is aforesaid, full Power and Authority in that behalfe, to cause such Persons to be arrested and apprehended which refuse to pay the said Costs and Expenses, and to commit them to Prison, there to remayne till they have satisfied the same.

18 Jac. 1.

And forasmuch as yf one commit an Offence of Ecclesiastical Cognizance in one Diocesse or peculiar Jurisdiction, and afterwards depart and remayne in another Diocesse or Jurisdiction, before any Suit be therefore commenced or prolecut in the place where the Offence was committed, he is unpunishable by any Ordinary Jurisdiction Ecclesiasticall, we therefore, to provide that Offendors in these Cases may not escape without due Punishment, do give Power and Authority unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid, upon the Certificate and Complaynt thereof to you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid in that behalfe, first made by the Ordinary of the Diocesse, or Judge of the Peculier where the Offence was committed, to send for by Letters missive, or to cause to be apprehended and brought before you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid, by Procelle of Attachment if need be in manner and forme aforesaid any Offendor, or any Person charged or suspected to have offended in any Cryme of Ecclesiastical Cognifance, other then those which are before particularly mentioned; And when any such Offender, or Person charged or suspected to have offended in any such Cryme as aforesaid, shall appear or be brought before you, or any such three or more of you as is aforesaid, to set downe such Orders from time to time as you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid, shall in your Discretions think meet; Which said Orders, so by you, or any three or more of you as is aforesaid, to be made as aforesaid, shall be to this effect only; That the said Offenders or Persons charged or suspected to have offended as aforesaid, shall personally appear and answer to the said Crymes, according to the Lawes Ecclesiasticall of this Our Kingdom, before the Ordinary or Judge Ecclesiasticall of the place where the Offence was committed.

And likewise we give unto you, and to every such three or more of you as is aforesaid, full Power and Authority to take sufficient Bonds or Recognizances, to Our Use at your Discretions, of all and every the said Offenders or Persons charged or suspected to have offended as aforesaid, for the performance of the said Orders as aforesaid;

And

A.D. 1620. And yf the Offenders or Persons charged or suspected to have offended as aforefaid shall refuse to perform your said Orders in manner and form aforefaid, or to give Bonds to Our Use for the performance of the said Orders as aforefaid, then it shall and may be lawful for you, or any three or more of you as is aforefaid, and we do give unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforefaid, by these Presents, full Power and Authority in that behalf to punish them and every of them by reasonable Imprisonment according to your Discretions.

And further we doe give unto you, or any three or more of you as is aforefaide, full Power and Authority to take and seize; or cause to be taken or seized such Children and other Persons which from tyme to tyme shall be carryed or conveyed, or ready to be carryed or conveyed into any the Parts beyond the Seas, to the Intente to be there brought upp in Romish Religion as aforefaide, and likewise to take and seize, or cause to be taken and seized, such Money and other Things which shall be appointed to be carried or conveyed into any the Parts beyond the Seas, to and for Mayntenance either of the said Children and other Persons soe carryed, or ready to be carried and conveyed as aforefaid, or of any other Person or Persons brought upp or remayning in the foresaide Semynaries or Schooles of Romish Religion, and the said Children and other Persons, which shall be taken as is aforefaid, to deteyne them in safe Custody till some good Order may be taken for them.

And alsoe we doe give unto you; or any such three or more of you as is aforefaid, full Power and Authority to seize or cause to be seized all massing Stuff Reliques or other like superstitious things, and to deface the same, and cause them to be defaced in such manner as from thenceforth they may not serve for any superstitious Use, without destroyeing the Substance thereof except otherwise it cannot be defaced.

And forasmuch as, since our last Commission for Causes Ecclesiastical graunted under our Greate Seale of England to some of you and others, there hath been divers lamentable Complaynts and Petitions delivered, as well to our selfe as to our Privy Councell, by many Wives against Husbands wherein they have suggested that without any just Cause of Offence

given by them to their said Husbands in that behalfe, and notwithstanding that some of them have brought to their Husbands great Advancements, Yet, by their Husbands cruell and barbarous Usage and Breach of the Bonds of holy Wedlocke and other their ungodly Demeanors, they have bene either cast of or left by their Husbands, or forced to fly from them or leave their Cohabitation without fit Mayntenance given unto them; and that the Ordinary Ecclesiasticall Courts did not afford them timely and fit meanes of Relief for sundry Reasons, and especially because their Necessities require above all other Cases of Grievance a summarie Hearinge, and speedy Reliefe being otherwise often in Danger to perish for Want; we therefore, to th'End that, as well our self as our Privy Councell daily ymployed in the highest Affaires of State, might be freed of this particular, and alsoe that the just Complaynts and distressed Estates of such Wives, in the Cases aforefaid, may be with all convenient Expedition heard determyned and relieved in a certayne Court whereunto in that behalfe they may ordinarily repayer for Justice; doe give unto you, and every three or more of you as is aforefaid, full Power and Authority by these Presents in that behalfe, uppon every such Complaynt made unto you, or any such three or more of you as is aforefaid, in all and every the Cases aforefaid, by any Wife, or in the behalfe of any Wife against her Husband to send for by Letters missive, or to cause to be apprehended and brought before you, or any such three or more of you as is aforefaid, by Proces of Attachment yf neede be in Manner and Form aforefaid, all and every such Husbands which, either by their cruell and barbarous Usage, or by the Breach of the Bonds of holy Wedlock or other their ungodly Demeanor, have or shall cast of or leave their Wives, or force or give their Wives just Cause to flye from them or leave their Cohabitation. And when any such Husband or Husbands so offendinge, or charged or accused as aforefaid to have offended in the Cases aforementioned, shall appeare or be brought before you, or any such three or more of you as is aforefaide, to proceede to the Examination thereof by all and every the lawful Waies and Meanes before mencioned with all convenient expedition, according to the grave Wisedomes and Discre-

18 Jac. 1.

And we doe further give Power and Authority unto you, or any five or more of you (whereof the said Lord Archbishopp of Canterbury, Lord Chauncellor of England, Lord High Treasurer of England for the tyme being, Lord Privy Seal, the Bishopp of London, Bishopp of Winchester or Bishopp of Ely to be alwaies one) finally to hear and determyne in Manner and Forme aforesaid the said Complaynts and Accusacions made by or on the behalfe of, any Wife against her Husband in the Cases aforesaid, and yf you, or any such three or more of you as is first above mentioned, shall not be able by your godly and grave Councells and Perswasions to reconcile the said Husbands and Wives, and cause the said Wives to remitt and forgive the Wrongs which their said Husbands have offered unto them and to live together with their Husbands as Man and Wife ought to doe, then you or any five or more of you (whereof the said Lord Archbishopp of Canterbury, Lord Chauncellor of England, Lord High Treasurer of England for the tyme being, Lord Privy Seale, the Bishopp of London, the Bishopp of Winchester, Bishopp of Ely, Bishopp of Rochester, Sir John Bennett, Sir William Bird or Sir Henry Marten to be alwaies one) to sett down such Orders from tyme to tyme, as you, or any such five or more of you as is aforesaid, shall in your Discrecions thinke meete for the competent and reasonable Alimonie and Mayntenances of every such Wife for so long time as you shall think meete, and during the tyme of her and her Husbands necessary living asunder, and for the defrayeing of the Expences of Suit which every such Wife hath or shall be at in the prosecuting of the said Cause against her said Husband in the Cases aforesaid:

And likewise we doe give unto you, and every such five or more of you as is aforesaid full Power and Authority to take sufficient Bonds or Recognizances, to our Use at your Discrecions; of every such Husband soe accused as aforesaid as well for his and their Appearance from tyme to tyme before you or such of you respectively in manner and forme aforesaid, as alsoe for the Performance of all and every your Order and Orders made in the behalfe of the said Wives as aforesaid; which Bonds or Recognizances, if they refuse to enter into, or shall refuse to performe your said Orders, then we give unto you, or any such five or more of you as is aforesaid, full Power and Authority in that behalfe to punish the same Person or Persons soe refusing, or not performinge the same by Censures Ecclesiastical, or by reasonable Fyne and Imprisonment, or by all or any the saide meanes according to your Discrecions.

18 Jac. 1.

And whereas there were divers Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches, Grammar Schools and other Ecclesiastical Corporations erected founded and ordeyned by the late King, of famous Memory, King Henry the eight, and by the late King Edward the Sixt, and by the late Queen Mary and the Lord Cardinall Poole, and alsoe by the late Queen Elizabeth, where there are either noe Ordinances Rules and Statuts at all or the same are altogether imperfect, or some of them made at such tymes as the Crowne and Regyment of this our Realme was subject to the forraigne usurped Authority of the Sea of Rome, soe as they cannot stand with the present State, being in divers Poynts uncertayne contrary divers and repugnant to the Dignity and Prerogative of our Crowne, the Lawes of this our Realme, and the present State of Religion nowe established within the same, we therefore doe give full Power and Authority to you, and to every fixe or more of you (of whom we will the Lord Archbishopp of Canterbury, and the Bishoppes of London, Winchester, Exeter, Rochester, Lincolne, Ely, Bath and Wells, Norwich Coventrie and Litchfeild, Chichester Gloucester Salisbury, Oxon and Bristol, nowe and for the tyme beinge, alwaies to be one) to cause and commaund in our name all and singuler the Ordinances Rules and Statuts of all and every the said Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches, in Grammar Schooles and other Ecclesiastical Corporations, together with their severall Letters Patents and other Writings toucheing or in any wise concerning their severall Directions and Foundations to be brought and exhibited before you, or any six or more of you as is aforesaid, and upon the Exhibiting and diligent and deliberate View Search and Examynation of the said Statuts Rules and Ordinances Letters Patents and Writings as is aforesaid, to purge alter and reforme the same, and alsoe where no Statuts are exrant at all, or the same defective and unperfect, to devise and
