CHAPTER II.

An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject and Settling the Succession of the Crown.

See Part p. 5.
no 1

WHEREAS the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons assembled at Westminster lawfully fully and truly representing all the Estates of the People of this Realm did upon the thirtieth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty eight present unto their Majesties then called and known by the Names and Stile of William and Mary Prince and Princess of Orange being present in their proper Persons a certain Declaration in Writing made by the said Lords and Commons in the Words following viz

The Rights of Parliament of Lords and Commons, stated

Deposing and suspending Power.

Granting Petitions.

Enrolling Commission.

Levying Money.

Starting Army.

Disarming
Protestants, &c.

Violating Petitions
Legal Privileges.

And

WHEREAS the late King James the Second by the Assistance of diverse evil Counsellors Judges and Ministers employed by him did endeavour to subvert and extirpate the Protestant Religion and the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom

By Assuming and Exercising a Power of Deposing with and Suspending of Lawes and the Execution of Lawes without Consent of Parliament
By Granting and Proceeding diverse Writs Petitions for hardly Petitioning to be excused from Concurring to the said Assumed Powers.

By Inventing and contriving to be executed a Commission under the Great Seale for Establishing a Court called The Court of Commissioners for Ecclesiastical Causes.

By Levying Money for and to the Use of the Crown by Pretence of Prærogative for other time and in other manner then the same was granted by Parliament.

By raising and keeping a Standing Army within this Kingdom in time of Peace without Consent of Parliament and Quartering Soldiers contrary to Law.

By causing several good Subjects being Protestants to be disarmed at the same time when Papists were both Armed and employed contrary to Law.

By Violating the Privileges of Election of Members to serve in Parliament

By Prosecutions in the Court of Kings Bench for Matters and Causes cognizable only in Parliament and by diverse other Arbitrary and Illegal Courses

And whereas of late years Partial Courts and Unqualified Persons have beene returned and served on Jurys in Tryalls and particularly diverse Justices in Tryalls for High Treasons which were not Freeholders,

And excessive Bails hath bene required of Persons committed in Criminal Cases to staid the Benefit of the Laws made for the Liberty of the Subjects.

Excessive Bail.

And excessive Fines have bene imposed.

From Penalties.

And illegal and cruel Punishments inflicted.

Grants of Pardon before Conviction.

And several Grants and Pardon made of Fines and Forfeitures before any Conviction or Judgment against the Persons upon whom the same were to be levied.

All which are strictly and directly contrary to the known Laws and Statutes and Precedents of this Realm.

Record that the late King James II. had obtained the Government, and that the Throne was vacant, and that the Prince of Orange had written Letters to the Lords and Commons for the choosing Representatives in Parliament.

And whereas the said late King James the Second having Abolished the Government and the Throne being thereby Vacant His (Highness) the Prince of Orange (whom it hath pleased Almighty God to make the glorious Instrument of Delivering this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Power) did (by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and diverse principal Persons of the Commons) cause Letters to be written to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal being Protestants and other Letters to the several Counties Cities Universities Burroughs and Cinque Ports for the Choosing of such Persons to represent them as were of right to be sent to Parliament to meet and sit at Westminster upon the two and twentieth day of January in the Year now discussed six hundred eighty and eight in order to such an Establishment as that their Religion Lives and Liberties might not againe be in danger of being Sلبerished, Upon which Letters Hitherto Answer being accordingly made

And thereupon the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons pursuant to their respective Letters and Elections being now assembled in a full and free Parliament of this Nation taking into their most serious Consideration the best means for attaining the Ends above said Do in the first place (by their Answerers in like Case have recently done) for the Visiting and Assenting their ancient Rights and Liberties, Declare

The Subject's Rights.

That the pretended Power of Suspending of Laws or the Execution of Laws by Regall Authority without Consent of Parliament is illegal.
