

be glad, and she that bare thee shall reioyce.

26 My sonne, giue me thine heart, and let thine eyes obserue my wayes.

27 * For an whore is a deepe ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 * She also lyeth in wait as for a pray, and increaseth the transgressours among men.

29 * Who hath woe: Who hath sorrow: Who hath contentions: Who hath babbling: Who hath wounds without cause: Who hath rednesse of eyes:

30 They that tarry long at the wine, they that goe to seeke mixt wine.

31 Looke not thou vpon the wine when it is red, when it giueth his colour in the cup, when it moueth it selfe aright.

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall vtter peruerse things.

34 Peca thou shalt be as he that lyeth downe in the midst of the sea, or as he that lyeth vpon the top of a mast.

35 They haue stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sicke: they haue beaten me, and I felt it not: When shall I awake: I will seeke it yet againe.

C H A P. XXIII.

BE not thou * enuious against euill men, neither desire to be with them.

2 * For their heart sturdieth destruction, and their lippes talke of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded, and by vnderstanding it is established.

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers bee filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is strong, yea a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 * For by wise counsell thou shalt make thy warre: and in multitude of counsellors there is safetie.

7 Wisdom is too high for a foole: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deuileth to doe euill, shall be called a mischieuous person.

9 The thought of foolishnesse is sinne: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faunt in the day of aduersitie, thy strength is small:

11 * If thou forbear to deliuer them that are drawen vnto death, and those that are ready to be slaine:

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not: doth not he that pondereth the heart, consider it? and he that keepeth thy soule, doth not he know it? and shall not hee render to euery man according to his workes:

13 * My sonne, eate thou honic, because it is good, and the honic combe, which is swete to thy taste.

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be vnto thy soule: when thou hast found it, * then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not waite, (O wicked man) against the dwelling of the righteous: spoile not his resting place.

16 * For a iust man falleth seuen times, and riseth vp againe: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 * Reioyce not when thine enemy falleth: and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and hee turne away his wrath from him.

19 * Fret not thy selfe because of euill men: neither be thou enuious at the wicked.

20 * For there shall be no reward to the euill man: the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My sonne, feare thou the LORD, and the king: and meddle not with them that are giuen to change.

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the ruine of them both:

23 These things also belong to the wise: * It is not good to haue respect of persons in iudgement.

24 * He that sayth vnto the wicked, Thou art righteous, him shall the people curse; nations shall abhorre him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come vpon them.

26 Euery man shall kisse his lippes that giueth a right answere.

27 Prepare thy worke without, and make it fit for thy selfe in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witnesse against thy neighbour without cause: and deceiue not with thy lippes.
