

The Trial of the Seven Bishops. 75

& publicari causaverunt; in quo quidem falso, ficto, malitioso, pernicioso & seditioso libello continetur----

The humble Petition of William, Archbishop of Canterbury, and of divers of the Suffragan Bishops of that Province (now present with him) in behalf of themselves and others of their absent Brethren, and of the Clergy of their respective Diocesses,

Humbly sheweth,

TH A T the great Averseness they find in themselves to the distributing and publishing in all their Churches, your Majesty's late Declaration for Liberty of Conscience, proceedeth neither from any want of Duty and Obedience to your Majesty; our Holy Mother the Church of England being both in her Principles and in her constant Practice unquestionably Loyal, and having to her great Honour, been more than once publickly acknowledged to be so by your gracious Majesty; nor yet from any want of due Tenderneſs to Dissenters, in relation to whom they are willing to come to such a Temper as shall be thought fit, when that
