

And excessive Bails hath bene required of Persons committed in Criminal Cases to staid the Benefit of the Lawes made for the Liberty of the Subjects.

Excessive Bail.

And excessive Fines have bene imposed.

From Parliament.

And illegal and cruel Punishments inflicted.

Grants of Fines, for before Commissions,
&c.

And severall Grants and Promises made of Fines and Forfeitures before any Condition or Judgement against the Person upon whom the same were to be levied.

All which are strictly and directly contrary to the known Lawes and Statutes and Precedents of this Realme.

Record that the late
King James II.
had obtained the Consent, and that the Throne was vacant, and that the Princes of Orange had written Letters to the Lords and Commons for the choosing Representatives in Parliament.

And whereas the said late King James the Second having Abolished the Government and the Throne being thereby Vacant His (Highness) the Prince of Orange (whome it hath pleased Almighty God to make the glorious Instrument of Delivering this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Power) did (by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and diverse principall Persons of the Commons) cause Letters to be written to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal being Protestants and other Letters to the severall Countiees Cities Universities Burroughes and Cinque Ports for the Choosing of such Persons to represent them as were of right to be sent to Parliament to meete and sit at Westminster upon the two and twentieth day of January in the Year now shewnd six hundred eighty and eight in order to such an Establishment as that their Religion Lives and Liberties might not againe be in danger of being Salvaged, Upon which Letters Highness Arreng became accordingly made.

And thereupon the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons pursuant to their respective Letters and Elections being now assembled in a full and free Representation of the Nation taking into their most serious Consideration the best manner for attaining the Ends abovesaid Doe in the first place (to their Answerers in like Case have readily done) for the Visiting and Assuring their ancient Rights and Liberties, Declare

The Subjects Rights.

That the pretended Power of Suspending of Lawes or the Execution of Lawes by Regall Authority without Consent of Parliament is illegal.

Suspending Power.

That the pretended Power of Dispensing with Lawes or the Execution of Lawes by Regall Authority is likewise unjust and unlaful of law illegal.

Law dispensing Power.

That the Commissions for visiting the late Court of Commissioners for Ecclesiastical Causes and all other Commissions and Courts of like nature are illegal and pernicious.

Ecclesiastical
Courts illegal.

That levying Money for or to the Use of the Crowne by Force of Privilege without Grant of Parliament for longer time or in other manner than the same is or shall be granted is illegal.

Levying Money.

That it is the Right of the Subjects to petition the King and all Commissions and Provisions for such Petitioning are illegal.

Right to petition.

That the raising or keeping a standing Army within the Kingdom in time of Peace without a bill with Consent of Parliament is against Law.

Standing Army.

That the Subjects which are Protestants may have Arms for their Defence suitable to their Conditions and as allowed by Law.

Subjects Arms.

That Election of Members of Parliament ought to be free.

Freedom of Election.

That the Freedom of Speech and Debates or Proceedings in Parliament ought not to be impeached or questioned in any Court or Place out of Parliament.

Freedom of Speech.

That excessive Bails ought not to be required nor excessive Fines imposed nor cruel and unusual Punishments inflicted.

Excessive Bail.

The Jurors ought to be duly impanelled and retained and Jurors which passe upon Men in Trials for High Treason ought to be Freeholders.

Jurors.

That all Grants and Promises of Fines and Forfeitures of particular persons before Commissions are illegal and void.

Grants of Forfeitures.

And that for Redress of all Grievances and for the attaining strengthening and preserving of the Lawes, Parliaments ought to be held frequently.

Frequent Parliaments.

And they doe Claim Demand and Insist upon all and singular the Privileges in these underwritten Rights and Liberties and that these Declarations Judgements Doings or Proceedings to the Prejudice of the People in any of the said Privileges ought in any way to be drawn into question or Consequence or Example. To which Demand of their Rights they are particularly encouraged by the Declaration of his Highness the Prince of Orange as being the only remedies for obtaining a full Redress and Remedy therein. Having therefore in more Confidence that his said Highness the Prince of Orange will perfect the Deliberations now fur advanced by him and will still preserve them from the Violation of their Rights which they have been assured and from all other Attempts upon their Religious Rights and Liberties, The said Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons assembled at Westminster doe Resolve That William and Mary Prince and Princess of Orange be and be declared King and Queene of England France and Ireland and the Dominions thereunto belonging to hold the Crowne and Regall Dignity of the said Kingdoms and Dominions to them the said Prince and Princess during their Lives and the Lifs of the Survivors of them And that the sole and full Exercise of the Regall Power be only in and concerned by the said Prince of Orange in the Names of the said Prince and Princess during their joynt Lives And after their Decease the said Crowne and Regall Dignity of the said Kingdoms and Dominions to be to the Honor of the Body of the said Princess And for defend of such Issue to the Princess Anne of Denmark and the Honor of her Body And for defend of such Issue to the Honor of the Body of the said Prince of Orange. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons doe pray the said Prince and (') Princess to accept the same accordingly.

The said Rights claimed.Title of the Oath.Regal Power
reserved.Limitation of the Oath.