they carried, and under what colors did the said ship sail? What other colors had you on board, and for what reason had you such other colors? Was any resistance made, at the time when the said ship was taken? and if yea, how many guns were fired? and by whom? and by what ship or ships were you taken? Was the ship or vessel by which you were captured, a ship of war, or a vessel acting without any commission, as you believe? Were any other and what ships in sight, at the time of the capture?

4th Interrogate.—What is the name of the master or commander of the ship or vessel taken? How long have you known the said master, and who appointed him to the command of said vessel? Where did said commander take possession of her, at what time, and what was the name of the person who delivered the possession to the said master? Where doth he live? Where is the said master's fixed place of abode, and where doth he generally reside? How long has he lived there, where was he born, and of whom is he now a subject? Is he married? If yea, where does his wife and family reside?

5th Interrogate.—Of what burden is the vessel which has been taken? What was the number of her mariners, and of what country were the said seamen and mariners? Did they all come on board at the same port, or at different ports, and who shipped or hired them, and when and where?

6th Interrogate.—Had you, or any of the officers or mariners belonging to the ship or vessel, concerning which you are now examined, any, and what, part, share or interest in the said vessel or her lading? If yea, set forth who and what goods or interest you or they have? Did you belong to the said vessel, at the time she was seized and taken? In what capacity did you belong to her? How long have you known her? When and where did you first see her, and where was she built?

7th Interrogate.—What is the name of the vessel? How long has she been so called? Do you know of any other name or names, and what are they, by which she has heretofore been called? Had she any passport or sea-chart on board, and from whom? To what ports and places did she sail, during her said voyage, before she was taken? Where did her last voyage begin, and where was the said voyage to have ended? From what port, and at what time, particularly from the last clearing port, did the said ship sail, previously to the capture? Set forth all the ports to which she has sailed, and at which she has touched and traded, during her whole voyage, out and home.

*8th Interrogate.—What lading did the said vessel carry, at the time of her first setting sail on her last voyage, and what sort of lading and goods had she [*83 on board, at the time she was taken? When was the same put on board? Set forth the different species of lading, and the quantity of each sort. Has any part of the cargo of said vessel been unladen, since the commencement of her original voyage? If so, at what ports or places was it unladen? State the articles which were unladen.

9th Interrogate.—Who were the owners of the vessel, at the time when she was seized? How do you know that they were owners at that time? Of what nation or country are such owners by birth? Where do they reside, and where do their wives and families reside? How long have they resided there? Where did they reside before, to the best of your knowledge? To whom are they subject? How long have the present owners been in possession? and of whom did they purchase?

10th Interrogate.—Was any bill of sale made, and by whom, to the aforesaid owners of said vessel? and if any such were made, in what month and year, and where, and in the presence of what witnesses? Was any, and what, engagement entered into concerning the purchase, further than appears on the bill of sale? If yea, was it verbal or in writing? Where did you last see it, and what has become of it?

11th Interrogate.—Was the said lading put on board in one port and at one time, or at several ports and at several times, and at what ports, by name? Set forth what quantities of each sort of goods were shipped at each port.
