

The Humble Submission and Supplication of the Lord Chancellor B. A.
CON to the House of LORDS.

May it please your Lordships,

I Shall humbly crave at your Hands a benign Interpretation of that which I shall now write: For Words that come from wasted Spirits, and oppressed Minds, are more safe in being deposited to a noble Construction, than being circled with any reserved Caution.

This being moved (and, as I hope, obtained of your Lordships) as a Protection to all that I shall say, I shall go on; but with a very strange Entrance, as may seem to your Lordships, at first:
For, in the midst of a State of as great Affliction as, I think, a mortal Man can endure; (Honneur being above Life)
