

I shall begin with the professing of Gladness in some Things.

The first is, That hereafter the Greatness of a Judge or Magistrate shall be no Sanctuary or Protection to him against Guiltiness, which is the Beginning of a golden Work.

The next, That after this Example, it is like that Judges will fly from any Thing in the Likeness of Corruption (though it were at a great Distance) as from a Serpent ; which tends to the purging of the Courts of Justice, and reducing them to their true Honour and Splendour. And in these two Points, (God is my Witness) though it be my Fortune to be the Anvil upon which these two Effects are broken and wrought, I take no small Comfort. But to pass from the Motions of my Heart (whereof God is my Judge) to the Merits of my Cause, whereof your Lordships are Judges, under God and his Lieutenant ; I do understand there hath been heretofore expected from me some Justification ; and therefore I have chosen one only Justification, instead of all others, out of the Justification of Job. For after the clear Submission and Confession which I shall now make unto your Lordships, I hope I may say, and justify with
