

10 Thirty cups of gold, silver cups of a second degree four hundred and ten, other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar^a bring up with the exiles that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

CHAPTER II.

1 ¶ Now these are the children of the province who went up out of the captivity of the exiles, whom, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away into exile unto Babylon, and who returned unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city;

2 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua', Nehemiah, Serayah, Re'elayah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Misspar, Bigvai, Rechum, Ba'anah. The number of the men of the people of Israel was:^b

33 The people of Lod, Chadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five.

35 The people of Sena'ah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty.

36 The priests were: The children of Jeda'yah, of the house of Jeshua', nine hundred seventy and three.

37 The children of Immer, one thousand fifty and two.

^a Aben Ezra supposes this to be Zerubbabel's name in Chaldean.

^b Philippon observes that Nehemiah (Heb. Nehemiah, yah), and Mordecai were evidently not the two celebrated characters. Also that there is a discrepancy between the names here given and in Nehemiah vii.; as also in the numbers, which here are 29,818, there 31,089, when added together, while the total number is given as 42,360. There must therefore be some omissions in the lists, and perhaps some minor families have been left out.

^c It will be observed that from this verse to 34 the towns are mostly mentioned instead of the parents; therefore we have rendered יְדֵי with "people" instead of children.

38 The children of Pashchur, one thousand two hundred forty and seven.

39 The children of Charim, one thousand and seventeen.

40 The Levites were: The children of Jeshua^a and Kadmiël, of the children of Hodavayah, seventy and four.

41 The singers were: The children of Asaph, one hundred twenty and eight.

42 The children of the gate-keepers were: The children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of 'Akub, the children of Chatita, the children of Shobai, in all one hundred thirty and nine.

43 The temple-servants^b were: The children of Zicha, the children of Chassupha, the children of Tabba'oth,

44 The children of Keross, the children of Si'aha, the children of Padon,

45 The children of Lebanah, the children of Chagabah, the children of 'Akkub,

46 The children of Chagab, the children of Shalmal, the children of Chanan,

47 The children of Giddel, the children of Gachar, the children of Re'ayah,

48 The children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam,

49 The children of 'Uzza, the children of Pase'eh, the children of Bessai,

52 The children of Bazluth, the children of Mechida, the children of Charsha,

53 The children of Barkoss, the children of Sissera, the children of Thamach,

54 The children of Neziach, the children of Chatipha.

55 The children of Solomon's servants were: The children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Peruda.

58 All the temple-servants, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred and ninety and two.

59 ¶ And these are those who went up from Thel-melach, Thel-charsha, Kerub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not tell their family division, and their descent, whether they were of Israel:

60 The children of Delayah, the children of Tobiyah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two.

61 And of the children of the priests: The children of Chabayah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who had taken a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gil'adite, and was called after their name.

62 These sought for their family-registers, but they were not found: wherefore they were excluded, as unfit, from the priesthood.

63 And the Thirshatha^b said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there should stand up a priest with the Urim and Thummim.

64 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and sixty.^c

65 Besides their men-servants and their maid-servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: they had also two hundred singing men and singing women.

66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;

67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 ¶ And some of the chiefs of the divisions, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freewill gifts for the house of God to set it up in its place:

69 After their ability they gave unto the treasure for the work sixty and one thousand drachms^d of gold, and five thousand manehs of silver, and one hundred coats for the priests.

70 ¶ And the priests, and the Levites,

^a Heb. Nethinim.

^b This evidently Persian word is said to mean "ruler," or "governor," from tash, "the strong." Some suppose it to be Neheniah; but was more probably Zerubbabel.

^c Philippon, deeming the men alone enumerated, supposes the whole to amount to about 200,000 souls.

^d The Persian Darike, from Dara and Kamanu, "the king's bow," either of gold or silver. Heb. Darkemon.

and some of the people, and the singers, and the gate-keepers, and the temple-servants, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER III.

1 And when the seventh month drew near, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then arose Jeshua' the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Sheälthiël, and his brethren, and they built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer thereon burnt-offerings, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they erected the altar upon its foundations; for there was fear^a upon them because of the people of these countries; and they offered thereon burnt-offerings unto the LORD, burnt-offerings at morning and at evening.

4 And they celebrated the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and (offered) the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the prescribed manner, the offering of every day on its day;

5 And afterward the continual burnt-offering, and that for the new moons, and for all the feasts of the LORD that are hallowed, and that of every one who willingly offered a free-will offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD: although the foundation of the temple of the LORD had not yet been laid.

7 Then did they give money unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and food, and drink, and oil, unto the Zidonians and Tyrians, to bring cedar-trees from the Lebanon by sea to Joppa,^b according to the permission of Cyrus the king of Persia for them.

8 ¶ And in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, did Zerubbabel the son of Sheälthiël, and Jeshua' the son of Jozadak, and the remainder of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem make a beginning; and they appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to superintend^c the work of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood forward Jeshua' with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiël and his sons, the sons of Judah, as one man, to superintend the workmen in the house of God; (also) the sons of Chenadad, their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they placed the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Assaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the manner of David the king of Israel.

11 And they sang responsively in praise and thanksgiving unto the LORD; because he is good, for unto everlasting endureth his kindness toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, while praising the LORD; because the foundation of the house of the LORD had been laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and chiefs of the divisions, the aged, who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice, while many, shouting for joy, raised aloud their voice:

13 So that the people could not distinguish the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard ever so far off.

CHAPTER IV.

1 ¶ Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the exile were building the temple unto the LORD the God of Israel:

2 Then came they near to Zerubbabel, and to the chiefs of the divisions, and said unto them, Let us build with you; for like you will we seek your God; and unto him^d do we sacrifice since the days of Essar-chaddon the king of Asshur, who hath brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua', and the rest of the chiefs of the divisions of Israel,

^a Rashi explains, that they built the altar before the temple, so that the non-Israelites should have no cause to calumniate them, as their whole intention was evidently merely to restore the worship.

^b Heb. Yapho.

^c Rashi, as in Psalm, תַּחֲנוּן "to charut at," Ac.

^d So the Keri; the Kethib אֱלֹהֵינוּ "and not" would require "for we do not sacrifice."
