

afterwards by Act of Parliament made anno (a) 14 Hen. 8., it was enacted that the said corporation, and every grant, article, and other things in the said letters patent contained and specified, should be approved, granted, ratified, and confirmed, &c. in tam amplo et largo modo prout poterit acceptari, cogitari, et construi per easdem literas patentes. And further it was enacted that the said six persons named in the said letters patent, as principal of the said college, should elect to them two others of the said college, who should be named electi, and that the said elects should choose one of them to be president as by the said Act appears: and further they pleaded the Act of (b) Mariae, by which it was enacted, Quod quædam concessio per literas patentes de incorporatione facta per prædict' nuper Regem medicis London. Et omnes clausule et articuli content' in eadem concessione approbarentur, concederentur, ratificarentur et confirm' per prædict' Parl'; in consideratione cujus inactitat' fuit autoritate ejusdem Parliamenti. Quod prædict' statut' et actum Parliamenti in omnibus articulis et clausulis in eodem content' extunc imposterum starent et continuarent in pleno robore, &c. And further it was enact-[115 a]-ed, "That whensoever the president of the college, or commonalty of the faculty of physick at London for the time being, or such as the said president and college shall yearly, according to the tenor and meaning of the said Act, authorize to search, examine, correct, and punish all offenders and transgressors in the said faculty, &c. shall send or commit any such offender or offenders for his or their offence or disobedience, contrary to any article or clause contained in the said grant or Act, to any ward, gaol, or prison within the same city (the Tower of London except) that then from time to time the warden, gaoler, or keeper, &c. shall receive, &c. such person so offending, &c. and the same shall keep at his proper charge, without bail or mainprize, until such time as such offender or disobedient be discharged of the said imprisonment by the said president, and such persons as shall be thereunto authorised, upon pain that all and every such warden, gaoler, &c. doing the contrary, shall lose and forfeit the double of such fines and amerciaments as such offender and offenders shall be assessed to pay, by such as the said president and college shall authorise as aforesaid, so that the fine and amerciament be not at any one time above the sum of 20l., the one moiety to the King, the other moiety to the president and college, &c." And further pleaded, that the said Thomas Bonham, April 10, 1606, within London, against the form of the said letters patent, and the said Acts, exercebat artem medicinæ, non admissus per literas prædict' præsentis et collegii sigillo eorum communi sigillat' ubi revera prædict' Tho. Bonham fuit minus sufficiens ad artem medicinæ exercend'. By force of which, the said Thomas Bonham, 30 Aprilis 1606, was summoned in London by the censors or governors of the college, ad comparend' coram præsent' et censor' sive gubernatorib' collegii prædict' at the college &c. the 14th day of April next following, super præmissis examinand'. At which day the said Thomas Bonham came before the president and censors, and was examined by the censors de scientia sua in facultate sua in medicin' administrand'. Et quia prædict' Thomas Bonham sic examinatus minus apte et insufficienter in prædict' arte medicinæ respondebat, et inventus fuit super examinationem prædict' per prædict' præsentem et censores minus insufficiens et inexpert' ad artem medicinæ administrand' ac pro eo quod prædict' Thomas Bonham multoties ante tunc examinatus, et interdictus per præsentem et censores, de causis prædict' ad artem medicinæ administrand' per unum mensem et amplius post talem interdictionem facultatem illam in Lond' prædict' sine licentia, &c. ideo ad tunc et ibid' consideratum fuit per prædict. præsentem et censores, quod prædict' Thomas Bonham pro inobedientia et contempt' suis prædict' amerciaretur to 100s. in proximis comitiis prædict' præsentem et collegii persolvend' et deinceps abstineret, &c. quousque inventus fuerit sufficiens, &c. sub pena [115 b] conjiciendi in carcerem si in præmissis delinqueret. And that the said Thomas Bonham, 20 Oct. 1636, within London did practise physick, and the same day he was summoned by the censors to appear before the president and them, 22 October then next following, at which day Bonham made default: ideo
