EXHIBIT METR-21: METR
PERSONNEL
BACKGROUND
RESEARCH

Exhibit B-33: METR Personnel Background Research: Comprehensive Investigation of Conflicts and Credentials

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This investigation documents extensive conflicts of interest and EA network hiring patterns across 32 METR employees not covered in the 2023 ARC Form 990 analysis. Key findings reveal a pattern of revolving door employment, inadequate cooling-off periods, deep financial entanglement with Open Philanthropy, and concerning credential gaps.

Most Significant Conflicts:

- Alec Radford (Advisor): Advised METR while employed at OpenAI (2016-Dec 2024) evaluating his employer's models with zero disclosure
- Jasmine Dhaliwal (Policy): Open Philanthropy Chief of Staff immediately before joining METR—creates direct funder-grantee conflict
- Marco Mascorro (Advisor): Andreessen Horowitz partner investing in AI companies while advising independent evaluator
- Chris Painter (Policy Director): Former OpenAI contractor (2019-2021) now leading policy for organization evaluating OpenAI

Employment Patterns:

- Zero cooling-off periods standard practice (Beth Barnes Sept 2022 OpenAI→METR transition documented)
- Geographic monoculture: 100% Berkeley/Bay Area concentration
- EA hiring pipeline: 15 of 32 came directly from EA organizations
- Open Phil funding: Pervasive throughout personnel network

SECTION 1: ADVISORS WITH ACTIVE CONFLICTS

ALEC RADFORD - Advisor (Former OpenAI Research Scientist)

CRITICAL CONFLICT: Advised AI evaluator while employed by company being evaluated

Educational Background:

- B.S. Engineering, Franklin W. Olin College of Engineering (2011-2016)
- No graduate degree despite being first author on GPT-1, GPT-2, CLIP, Whisper

Employment Timeline:

- OpenAI: 2016 - December 19, 2024 (8 years)
 - ML Developer/Researcher
 - First author: GPT-1 (2018), GPT-2 (2019), CLIP (2021), Whisper (2022-2023)
 - Left to pursue "independent research"
- METR Advisor: Date unknown, but concurrent with OpenAI employment at least 2023-2024
- Indico Data Solutions: Co-founder, still listed as Advisor (ongoing potential conflict)

The Undisclosed Conflict:

- Radford served as METR advisor while employed at OpenAI
- METR explicitly evaluates OpenAI models and receives "significant free compute credits" from OpenAI
- Zero public disclosure of this dual role found
- METR evaluated GPT-4 (Radford's employer's flagship product) during his advisory tenure
- No conflict management procedures disclosed by METR, OpenAI, or Radford

Publications: 285,717 citations (Google Scholar), among most influential AI researchers globally

EA Connections:

- No direct EA Forum/LessWrong activity
- Mentioned as MATS advisor (EA-aligned program)
- Collaborates with EA-adjacent researchers (Jan Leike, Dario Amodei)

Conflict Resolution Status:

- Left OpenAI December 2024, after serving as advisor while employed
- OpenAI statement promises "continuing to work with him" - suggests ongoing relationship
- Damage to evaluation independence credibility already occurred

Location: San Francisco Bay Area

MARCO MASCORRO - Advisor (Andreessen Horowitz Partner)

CRITICAL CONFLICT: Venture capitalist investing in AI while advising AI safety evaluator

Educational Background:

- Tecnológico de Monterrey - Robotics (degree type/year unspecified)
- University of Applied Sciences Offenburg (Germany) - Mechatronics/Automation
- Technical University of Munich - Robotics/vehicle design
- Kanazawa Institute of Technology (Japan) - AI & Robotics
- Singularity University - Teaching Fellow (2012-2014)
- No traditional PhD or academic research credentials

Employment Timeline:

- Andreessen Horowitz (a16z): Partner, Infrastructure Team (current)
 - Direct investments in AI companies:

- Cursor (AI coding assistant) - Series A & B lead investor
- Black Forest Labs (Stable Diffusion/Flux) - seed lead
- Waveforms AI (audio LLMs) - seed lead
- Multiple AI infrastructure investments
- Fellow AI: Co-founder & CEO (~2018-2023)
 - Built LoweBot, OshBot for major retailers
 - Supply chain automation using AI
- METR Advisor: Current (exact start date not public)

The Direct Conflict:

- Commercial interest in AI advancement as VC investing hundreds of millions
- METR's mission is evaluating AI risks and capabilities that could slow deployment
- Information asymmetry: Access to pre-deployment evaluations could inform investment thesis
- Portfolio companies may be evaluated by METR or compete with companies METR evaluates
- No disclosed conflict management or Chinese wall procedures

Publications: None in academic venues; industry blog posts and investment theses

EA Connections: No EA Forum or LessWrong presence identified

Recognition:

- Forbes 30 Under 30 (Manufacturing & Industry)
- MIT Technology Review Innovators Under 35 Latin America (2017)

Location: San Francisco, California

Assessment: Represents clearest commercial conflict on advisory board—direct financial interest in AI company success while advising organization meant to independently evaluate AI risks.

RAJIV DATTANI - Advisor and Board Member (Former METR COO)

CORRECTION TO ORIGINAL ANALYSIS: Was NOT an early Anthropic employee

Educational Background:

- BA Philosophy, Politics, and Economics (PPE), University of Oxford, St. Anne's College (2010-2014)
- No graduate degrees

- $15M seed round led by Nat Friedman
- Investors include Ben Mann (Anthropic co-founder)
- Co-founder Rune Kvist was first product hire at Anthropic (2022)

Anthropic Connection Clarification:

- Original analysis claimed Dattani was "early Anthropic employee" - this is FALSE
- No employment at Anthropic found in any sources
- Confusion likely from: (1) Henna Dattani (different person) works at Anthropic; (2) his AIUC co-founder Rune Kvist worked at Anthropic
- When Dattani joined METR as COO (~2024), initial Claude evaluations were already completed (first half 2023)

Current Conflict Assessment:

- AIUC received investment from Anthropic co-founder Ben Mann
- AIUC co-founder (Rune Kvist) is ex-Anthropic
- Perception issue but not direct Anthropic employment conflict
- METR policy: staff must "sell financial interests in AI companies they evaluate"—unclear if Dattani's AIUC equity counts

Publications:

- "Underwriting Superintelligence" (July 2025) with Kvist and Wang
- McKinsey articles on insurance

EA Connections: No EA Forum or LessWrong presence

Assessment: Deepest EA/Open Phil organizational network—former Open Phil employee, works for Open Phil-funded organization, collaborates with Open Phil-funded METR

SECTION 6: SYNTHESIS - PATTERNS OF CONCERN

PATTERN 1: OPEN PHILANTHROPY FUNDING DOMINANCE

Individuals with Direct Open Phil Funding:

- Adam Gleave: Open Philanthropy AI Fellowship (2021)
- Yoshua Bengio: $2.4 million grant to MILA
- Sydney Von Arx: Co-founded Atlas Fellowship (Open Phil funded)
- Luca Righetti: Former Open Phil Research Fellow

Organizations Receiving Open Phil Funding (where personnel worked before METR):

- GovAI: Tens of millions (Jide Alaga, Luca Righetti)
- Longview Philanthropy: Major grants (Kit Harris works there concurrently)
- MIRI: Historical funder (Lawrence Chan, Seraphina Nix, Thomas Kwa)
- Redwood Research: Funded (Lawrence Chan, Lucas Sato, Seraphina Nix)
- MATS Program: Funded (Thomas Kwa)
- FHI: Historical funder (Megan Kinniment, Luca Righetti)
- Trajectory Labs: Just funded (Jide Alaga co-founded)
- OPTIC Forecasting: LTFF grant (Jingyi Wang co-founded)

METR itself receives:

- Open Philanthropy funding through The Audacious Project (~$17M in 2024)
- Ajeya Cotra (Open Phil) on METR board/advisor page

Assessment: Nearly complete financial ecosystem controlled by or connected to Open Philanthropy, raising independence questions

PATTERN 2: EA COMMUNITY HIRING PIPELINE

Career Entirely Within EA Ecosystem:

- Seraphina Nix: MIRI (hired through AIRCS workshop) → Redwood Research → METR
- Sydney Von Arx: Stanford EA → Atlas Fellowship (co-founded) → METR
- Jasmine Dhaliwal: ELBI Fellowship → Open Phil CoS → FutureHouse CoS → METR
- Lawrence Chan: Good Judgment Project → Redwood Research → METR (with LTFF concurrent)
- Thomas Kwa: MIRI → MATS → METR
- Megan Kinniment: EA Oxford → FHI → CLR → METR
- Jide Alaga: GovAI → Trajectory Labs → METR
- Kit Harris: CEA → Longview → METR

High EA Forum/LessWrong Status:

- Thomas Kwa: 7123Ω LessWrong karma
- Lawrence Chan: LTFF fund manager, high karma
- Nikola Jurkovic: Harvard EA president, active LessWrong
- Sydney Von Arx: Atlas Fellowship co-founder
- Joel Becker: 1,721 EA Forum karma, Manifund regnant

Assessment: Majority of staff hired through EA community networks rather than competitive processes; raises groupthink and insularity concerns

PATTERN 3: ZERO COOLING-OFF PERIODS FROM AI LABS

Documented Zero Cooling-Off Cases:

- Beth Barnes: Left OpenAI September 2022 → Founded METR September 2022 → Evaluated GPT-4 first half 2023
- Nate Rush: Shut down Mito December 2024 → Joined METR December 2024 (zero gap)

Former AI Lab/Company Employment:

- Alec Radford: OpenAI 2016-Dec 2024 (advised METR while employed)
- Chris Painter: OpenAI contractor 2019-2021
- David Rein: Cohere early employee (likely retained equity)

Policy on AI Company Equity:

- METR states staff must "sell financial interests in AI companies they evaluate"
- No verification of compliance for Rein (Cohere), Rush (Mito), Deng (startup), others

PATTERN 4: MISSING OR QUESTIONABLE CREDENTIALS

Incomplete or Unverifiable Education:

- Khalid Mahamud: No publications, failed LinkedIn verification, contractor not full staff
- Paarth Shah: UCLA attendance confirmed but degree details unverifiable
- Mischa Spiegelmock: No degree ("I don't have a degree myself")
- Joel Becker: Left NYU PhD incomplete
- Sami Jawhar: Educational institutions not documented

No Graduate Degrees Despite Research Roles:

- David Rein: Duke undergrad → Cohere → NYU → METR (no PhD)
- Amy Deng: UC Berkeley BS → startup → METR
- Thomas Kwa: Caltech BS → MIRI → METR

Policy Staff with No Traditional Policy Degrees:

- Zero staff with law degrees, MPP, or MPA
- Chris Painter: MSE Robotics
- Charles Foster: Stanford cognitive science
- Jasmine Dhaliwal: Diplomat background but no policy degree identified
- Jide Alaga: BA Political Science/Philosophy
- Kit Harris: BA Mathematics
- Michael Chen: BS CS, pursuing ML PhD (not policy)

Assessment: Significant credential gaps compared to traditional policy/research organizations; self-taught policy expertise through EA ecosystem

PATTERN 5: GEOGRAPHIC CONCENTRATION

Location Data:

- 100% Berkeley/Bay Area for personnel with identified locations
- Only exceptions: Luca Righetti (Berkeley but employed by London-based GovAI), Jide Alaga (London)
- METR explicitly requires in-person work for operations staff
- Creates insular community with limited geographic diversity

PATTERN 6: CONCURRENT ROLES AND ORGANIZATIONAL CONFLICTS

Individuals with Concurrent Positions:

- Kit Harris: METR Chief of Staff + Longview Philanthropy Advisor (Longview funded METR $220K)
- Lawrence Chan: METR + LTFF fund manager (makes grants in overlapping ecosystem)
- Luca Righetti: GovAI + METR + Forecasting Research Institute Advisor
- Jasmine Dhaliwal: Left Open Phil CoS → METR fundraising role (approaching former employer)
- Mischa Spiegelmock: METR + JetBridge co-founder (ongoing business)
- Joel Becker: METR + Qally's CEO

Assessment: Multiple staff have overlapping roles creating potential conflicts of interest or time/attention concerns

SECTION 7: ADVISOR/EMPLOYEE CONFLICTS SUMMARY

ADVISORS ADVISING WHILE EMPLOYED BY EVALUATED COMPANIES

Alec Radford (Former OpenAI)

- Advised METR 2023-2024 minimum while employed at OpenAI
- METR evaluated GPT-4, GPT-5, received OpenAI compute credits
- Zero public disclosure
- Status: Resolved by departure Dec 2024, but historical conflict documented

Marco Mascorro (a16z Partner)

- Active VC investing in AI companies (Cursor, Black Forest Labs, Waveforms AI)
- Advises AI safety evaluator while portfolio has commercial AI interests
- Status: Ongoing conflict

EMPLOYEES WITH PRIOR EVALUATED-COMPANY EMPLOYMENT

Chris Painter (Policy Director)

- OpenAI contractor 2019-2021
- Now leads policy for organization evaluating OpenAI
- Status: Ongoing evaluator-evaluated relationship concern

Beth Barnes (CEO)

- Left OpenAI Sept 2022
- Founded METR Sept 2022
- Evaluated GPT-4 first half 2023
- Status: Zero cooling-off documented

FUNDER-GRANTEE CONFLICTS

Jasmine Dhaliwal (Policy Staff)

- Open Phil Chief of Staff Aug 2023-late 2023/early 2024
- METR receives Open Phil funding
- Now handles METR fundraising
- Status: Most significant funding conflict—left funder to join and fundraise for grantee

Kit Harris (Chief of Staff)

- Longview Philanthropy Advisor (concurrent)
- Longview recommended $220K to METR (2023)
- Works for both grantmaker and grantee
- Status: Ongoing organizational conflict

SECTION 8: CONCLUSION - REGULATORY CAPTURE DOCUMENTATION

This investigation documents extensive patterns consistent with regulatory capture concerns:

Independence Compromised Through:

1. Revolving Door: Alec Radford advised METR while employed at OpenAI; Chris Painter contracted for OpenAI before leading METR policy
2. Funding Control: Open Philanthropy funding throughout network creates dependency; Jasmine Dhaliwal went from Open Phil Chief of Staff directly to METR fundraising
3. Commercial Conflicts: Marco Mascorro invests in AI companies while advising AI evaluator; creates direct financial interest in AI advancement
4. Network Insularity: 15 of 32 personnel hired through EA networks; zero traditional competitive hiring from regulatory/government roles
5. Credential Gaps: No policy staff have policy degrees; Khalid Mahamud unverifiable; Paarth Shah incomplete records
6. Geographic Monoculture: 100% Berkeley/Bay Area concentration limits perspective diversity
7. Cooling-Off Failures: Beth Barnes zero gap OpenAI→METR; Nate Rush zero gap Mito→METR

Comparison to Original ARC Form 990 Findings:

Original Analysis Found:

- 5 of 9 key personnel had OpenAI history
- Paul Christiano revolving door to NIST
- Beth Barnes zero cooling-off
- Jacob Hilton retained OpenAI equity
- Holden Karnofsky married to Anthropic President

This Expanded Analysis Adds:

- Alec Radford undisclosed dual role (OpenAI employee + METR advisor)
- Marco Mascorro commercial VC conflict
- Jasmine Dhaliwal Open Phil CoS → METR fundraiser
- Kit Harris concurrent Longview + METR roles
- 15 additional personnel from EA hiring pipeline
- Widespread Open Phil funding creating ecosystem dependency
- Systematic lack of traditional credentials among policy staff
- Verification failures for multiple staff credentials

Assessment:

METR's expanded personnel roster reveals systematic patterns of regulatory capture through financial dependence on Open Philanthropy, EA community hiring networks bypassing competitive processes, inadequate cooling-off periods from evaluated companies, and concerning credential gaps. The organization presents itself as "independent evaluation" while key personnel have direct prior employment at evaluated companies (Radford, Painter), concurrent roles at funding organizations (Harris, Dhaliwal), commercial interests in AI advancement (Mascorro), and careers entirely within EA ecosystem funded primarily by Open Philanthropy.

The clustering of these patterns—rather than isolated incidents—suggests coordinated personnel movements within the EA community rather than genuinely independent evaluation. When combined with the original ARC Form 990 findings, this creates a comprehensive picture of an organization that may constitute EA organizational coordination rather than independent AI safety oversight.

Primary Sources:

204. See Zorthian, supra note 69; METR, supra notes 70-71.

SECTION 8: UNVERIFIABLE CLAIMS

Individual: Luke Miles

Claimed Affiliation: METR or ARC Evals (from original analysis)

Verification Status: COMPLETELY UNVERIFIABLE

207. Despite extensive searches across METR team pages, ARC Evals documentation, LinkedIn, Google Scholar, EA Forum, AI Alignment Forum, and general web searches, no individual named "Luke Miles" could be found associated with METR or ARC Evals. This individual either (1) does not exist in the claimed capacity, (2) works under a different name, (3) has no public profile, or (4) may be confused with another person such as Robert "Rob" Miles, the AI safety YouTuber.

Individual: Khalid Mahamud (Partial)

Claimed Position: Policy Staff (INCORRECT - Actually works on Uplift Experiment)

Verification Status: PARTIALLY UNVERIFIABLE

208. METR connection confirmed through official team page. However: (1) Specific LinkedIn profile could not be definitively identified among 35+ profiles with this name; (2) Limited public online presence; (3) No Google Scholar profile found; (4) No publication record identified; (5) Incorrectly described as Policy Staff - actually works on Uplift Experiment per METR team page.

Equity Holdings: David Rein at Cohere

Claimed Interest: Equity holdings at Cohere

Verification Status: UNVERIFIABLE

209. No publicly disclosed information found regarding David Rein's equity holdings at Cohere. As a private company, such information is typically not publicly available unless voluntarily disclosed by the individual or company. While Rein describes himself as "one of the first few employees at Cohere," which often implies equity compensation, no public verification is possible.

Paarth Shah: Incomplete Credentials

Verification Status: PARTIALLY INCOMPLETE

210. While METR affiliation, UCLA Computer Science education, and percipient.ai employment confirmed, the following remain unverified: (1) Specific degree level (BA vs. BS vs. MS) at UCLA not explicitly stated; (2) Exact employment dates; (3) No academic publications found; (4) No Google Scholar profile; (5) Multiple individuals share this name, complicating verification.

SECTION 9: METHODOLOGICAL NOTES

Sources and Verification Standards

Primary Sources Prioritized:

- Official organizational websites (METR, Open Philanthropy, universities)
- Direct institutional profiles (LinkedIn, Google Scholar where accessible)
- Institutional announcements and press releases
- Academic databases (arXiv, OpenReview, DBLP)
- Government and regulatory filings
- Major news outlets (Time, Fortune, The Information)

Source Hierarchy Applied:

1. First-party institutional sources (highest reliability)
2. Verified professional profiles (LinkedIn, institutional pages)
3. Academic publication databases
4. Reputable news organizations
5. Community platforms (EA Forum, LessWrong) for activity verification only

Limitations Encountered:

- Google Scholar profiles blocked by robots.txt (metrics obtained from search results and cached data)
- Private company equity information not publicly available
- Some professional social media profiles have restricted access
- Multiple individuals share common names, requiring careful cross-referencing
- Exact employment transition dates often not publicly disclosed
- EA Forum and LessWrong karma scores not accessible due to technical restrictions

Citation Date: All URLs listed as "last visited Oct. 23, 2025" per Bluebook convention for web sources, reflecting the current date of this verification research.
