Why (2026-07-02): same re-sweep directive as the Towneley file — the first sweep (Opus 4.8) was digest-level; re-evaluate line-by-line under Fable 5 to the 008-sweep standard. This file accumulates the complete diplomatic text of deposition #2 — Rees ap [J]evan Lloyd/Floud, the complainant, examined as a prisoner in the Fleet — which runs 003R → 004L → 004R → 005L → 005R → 006L → 006R → 007 (signed).

[[P4D FOLD-IN, 2026-07-08 (user-approved)]] The Phase 4D per-membrane line-index sweeps (nat+eB, _WORKING_003/004/005/006/007_LINE_INDEX.md) have been folded into this file: inline corrections carry a [[4D: ...]] note; contested readings stay flagged (△/[?], lean-only), and each membrane section ends with a short fold-in block. Every membrane verdict: this baseline SURVIVES at substance level. One recovered LINE (006R, homoeoteleuton — now inline). Systemic: the scribe writes in-line BARRED "f̄d" (macron-class) where this file's notation shows interline "s[ai]d" — confirmed 006R (×6) + 007 (×3); read those notations accordingly pending TNA. All arbitration items live in _PRECISION_PASS_LEDGER.md (the TNA commission brief); readings here remain provisional-with-disclosure until the professional TNA transcription returns (conform-on-return, names above all).

003R · BAND 1 (SRC Y 82–660) — MARGIN DATE; THE DEPONENT-INTRO; "TO THE 1." OPENS

(top-left margin:) xj[?]. Junij 1607. — the examination date (11 June 1607?), corroborating the 001 Latin heading's "[xj?] die mensis Junij"; both examinations appear same-dated. [[4D-3 CONTEST △△: the crop-level read is "x[v?]j Junij 1607" (16th) — one minim decides same-dated vs not; ledger C.1/B6, TOP TNA.]]

Rees ap Jevan Ll[o]ud, now p[r]isoner in the ffleete, sworne &c /

To the 1. Interr[ogatory] this ex[aminan]t [saieth] to his rememb[r]aunce that he did [not?] [report to any] p[er]son or p[er]sons ... since the [vj]th of October ... that M[r] Barker ... — (the report-denial, completing in band 2; Art. 1's first clause was NOT captured in the first sweep, which began at the "2nd" answer.)

★ Lloyd's answers begin at 1 (Towneley's began at 3) — the selective-administration pattern from the answer side again.

003R · BANDS 2–3 (SRC Y 518–1674) — ART. 1 ANSWERED IN FULL: THE DENIAL, THE ADMISSION, AND THE FAIR-TRIAL FRAMING

... [that he did] not reporte[d] to any p[er]son or p[er]sons [interline] since the sixth day of october last, that Richard [struck] Barker esq[ui]re, one of his Ma[jes]t[ies] Justices of his highnes great Sessions of the Countie of Anglesey in Northwales, [sh/c]ould be no more Justice there ... [neither did this ex[aminan]t] [saye/sweare?] that [] wished [] no ... But he this ex[aminan]t did s[aye] [at?] that tyme that the said M[r] [B]arker might [be] no more come to be Justice there, & that yf he did, that this ex[aminan]t might not receive [his] triall under him; but to whome this ex[aminan]t so said, he doth not now [per]fectly [re]member; But [saieth] [he thinketh?] it was to George Ll[oyd?] / W_en?] ... (name completes in band 4)

★ Art. 1's answer is a layered confession-and-avoidance the first sweep flattened: (1) DENIES the "should be no more Justice" report as framed; (2) ADMITS saying Barker "might no more come to be Justice"; (3) grounds it in his own jeopardy — "this examinant might not receive [his] trial under him" — the fair-trial objection of a man then under indictment; (4) names the hearer (George Ll[?]) — new name, verification item). Note the scribal strike of "~~Richard~~" before "Barker."

003R · BANDS 4–6 (SRC Y 1363–3196) — THE LONDON-NEWS CONTEXT; ART. 2: THE BROTHER NAMED, THE WIFE NAMED AS VICTIM, THE DENIAL TO THE DEATH

... as he thinketh, it was to George Ll[?] [name — verification zoom] ... & that the occasion of this ex[aminan]ts so sayinge was upon day this ex[aminan]ts then beinge newly com[e] from London, [and] it beinge then demaunded also of this ex[aminan]t whether the s[ai]d M[r] Barker & M[r] Justice Leighton were putt owt of their places of [being] Justices of Assize[?] w[i]thin that Count[ie/re]y /

To the 2. Interr this ex[aminan]t saieth that he doth verily beleve in his conscience that John ap Jevan Lloud, his ex[aminan]ts brother, was at the last Sessions holden for the Counties of Anglesey wrongfullie indicted, condempned & executed for the supposed murtheringe of [his] ~~[struck]~~ wife; for that this ex[aminan]t did often [theretofore?] heare the said [John ap?] Jevan Lloud [urged? touching] that matter, ^{if it were true}, that he should confesse the same, & he still denied it to the deathe. And further he saieth [that this] ex[aminan]t was unjustlie & wrongfullie [indicted] for the ... (continues band 7)

★★★ Three recoveries of the first order: (1) the victim = "his wife," in the complainant's own sworn answer — the third independent attestation (with 008 Art. 1 "his A[nn/m]is" and 010 r11 "the wieffe of the said Elder brother"), here with the family's framing "the SUPPOSED murthering"; (2) the brother's dying denial — "he still denied it to the deathe" — the counterpart, for the wife-murder prosecution, of the kinsman's written dying charge (004) in the Hugh-ap-William prosecution: BOTH executed men die protesting; (3) the context of the Art-1 "report": Lloyd newly come from London, ANSWERING a question about news ("whether Barker & Leighton were put out of their places") — the "seditious report" was table-talk about judicial removals already in motion. Also: the answer numbering here (report = 1; brother/wife/own-indictment = 2) indicates the 008 margin-"2" belongs at the brother-belief clause — Art 1 = the report alone (refine the 008 map).

003R • BANDS 7–8 (SRC Y 2687–4110, TORN FOOT) — "NOT IN ANY SORT PRIVY OR CONSENTING"; THE SCRIBE'S OWN NAME-ORDER STUMBLE; THE KINSHIP DEGREE

... [that he this ex[aminan]t was] unjustlie & wrongfully [in]di[c]ted ¶4D-3 △: heavy stroke through the word body sighted nat+eB — strike vs emphatic stroke, TNA] for that offense ^{facte} ¶4D-3: my "offe[?] [ch]arged" retracted to challenger; "facte" lead], for he was not in anie sorte p[r]ivie ¶4D-3 CONTEST △△: letterform-based rival "procuringe" — both canonical formulas, juridically loaded; ledger C.2, TOP TNA] or consenting to the doinge thereof. And further this ex[aminan]t saieth that, as he taketh it, Willm [struck] / ap Rees ap [W]m, that was executed [with] his ex[aminan]ts brother, & he this ex[aminan]t were the [C]ozens ¶4D-3 △: rival "[S]onnes" — C/S + minims; "Cozens" lead on formula coherence] of [c]osin german[s] remo[v]ed — (torn foot; the deposition continues on 004L with the dying-charge narrative.)

★★ Four recoveries: (1) the canonical clause "not in any sort privy or consenting" now verbatim with band anchor; (2) the scribe strikes "Willm" and rewrites the name — live manuscript evidence of the very name-order instability ("William ap Rees" ⇔ "Rees ap William") that generated the cross-source variants, and the surviving text again carries the three-element form "...ap Rees ap W[illia]m" (matching 008 Art. 3); (3) "executed with his examinant's brother" — the two-executions premise re-confirmed in a third place; (4) NEW: the exact kinship — the complainant and the executed kinsman were "cousins of cousin-germans removed." Also the offense→^{facte} correction.

¶P4D-3 FOLD-IN (003R):] Line census R1–R40; every load-bearing clause of Art-1/Art-2 (layered answer, wife/dying-denial, privy-consenting close, kinship formula) independently re-found at letterform level ✓eB — full delta log in _WORKING_003_LINE_INDEX.md. New (not in this baseline): "Coñ" △ macron token before "Countie of Anglesey" (R8); "Countie" underline/strike (R26); interline candidate-content "say that he[?]" near the Art-1 ^[interline]; the hearer "George LI[?]" seam-placed ✓ (my stray half-row = this name). Contested → TNA: the date minim (above); privie/procuringe (above); "sixt"-vs-"ffirst" October ("sixt" lead); Cozens/Sonnes; "receaved"-vs-"executed" (L13, Towneley side); R15 "perfectly remember / But saieth" vs "certainlie remēber / But safely"; "Interr" vs "Entred" (R4).

004L • BANDS 1–4 (SRC Y 82–2264) — ART. 3: THE BILL'S OBJECT ("AS THIS EXAMINANT CONCEIVED IT"); THE COMMON-PLEAS ACTION; THE DEAD MAN'S VOICE

To the 3. Interr[ogatory] this ex[aminan]t [s]aieth that he p[re]ferred a Bill into the Starrechamber against M[r] ^{Richard} [struck] Barker ¶4D-4 CONTEST (B1): no interline/caret found at the knot — in-line "m[r] (R/N)ithgale △ A[n]irje Barker"; the "Richard" reading NOT corroborated; TOP TNA (names)] & oth[ers], Justice of Assize of the Countie of A[n]glesey ¶4D-4: initial (A) only attested — "Anglesey" is supplied], ... for & touchinge [the] wronge & [in]justice, as this ex[aminan]t conceived it, done unto the s[ai]d W[illia]m Rees ap Willia[m] & others, & for other the misdemeanors. And saieth that the reason why he did not by the s[ai]d [bill] p[re]ferred in this Ho: Courte complaine of the wronge done to this ex[aminan]t was that he had ^{before} brought his ac[ti]on in the Courte of Comon Pleas at Westm[inster] of Conspiracie, touchinge those matters. And touchinge the wrongs done to this ex[aminan]ts broth[er] — ~~because he was dead~~ [struck, then restructured] — this ex[aminan]t thought it good to bringe it in question, as well because he was dead, as also because [his] brother did not ^{in his life tyme} wishe this ex[aminan]t so to doe /

★★ Recoveries: (1) the wronged man again in the THREE-ELEMENT form ("W[illia]m Rees ap Willia[m]" — 4th attestation); (2) the bill's charge qualified "as this examinant conceived it"; (3) the full why-not-own-wrongs answer = the standing answer at the origin: his own wrongs were already in a Common-Pleas conspiracy action; the Star Chamber bill carried the DEAD man's wrongs "because he was dead" — the surviving kinsman as the executed man's only voice (and the correction shows the scribe restructuring exactly this clause); (4) the brother "did not in his life time WISH this examinant so to do" (first sweep misread "wish" as "with... [pursue it]") — Lloyd volunteers that he acted unbidden, after the death. △ Structural note: the deposition's early answer-numbers (1 = report; 2 = brother/wife/own-indictment/kinsman; 3 = the bill ✓ aligns; 4 = the prison/dying-charge matter — which does NOT match 008's engrossed Art. 4 (Bulkeley procurement)) — the administered set was likely a VARIANT/earlier state of the engrossed instrument. Open item for the professional transcription.

004L · BANDS 5–6 (SRC Y 1804–3196) — ART. "4": ONE PRISON, ONE QUARTER-YEAR; THE NAME ASSEMBLED BY INTERLINE; "AS INNOCENT ... AS THE CHILD NEW BORNE"; BEAUMARIS PRISON

To the 4. Interr[ed] this ex[aminan]t [saieth] that [this] ex[aminan]t was imprisoned together in one prison w[i]th the sawd [said] Willia[m] ap Rees ap Willia[m], before the ~~[struck]~~ Rees [ap] Willia[m] was executed, by the space of a q[ua]rter of a yere or thereabouts. And after the s[ai]d Willia[m] ap Rees ap Willia[m] was cond[em]ned for the s[ai]d fau[l]te ¶4D-4 CORRECTION (B3): eB reads "faulte" BOTH times here (parallel-form, 3 sightings) where this file wrote "facte"; 003R interlined ^{facte} — the two leaves differ; TNA, he [being] in the prison at [B]ewmar[i]s, call[ed] this ex[aminan]t a[side], desiringe ¶4D-4 CONTEST (B4): letterforms do not support "aside/desiringe" — rival "call [for?] this [ext?] a[fore?] the [Sh]er[?]ing" (a time-marker); TNA this ex[aminan]t to heare his confession ^{privately, what he [would say?]} ... he told this ex[aminan]t that he was as innocent of the fau[l]te ¶4D-4 (B3) whereof he was condemned as the child new borne, & then the said [man] delivered to this ex[aminan]t [a] writen ... (the written direction — band 7)

★★ (1) The kinsman's name in the FULL form a 5th time — and, decisively, the scribe interlines "William ap" above "Rees ap William" to complete it: the manuscript itself assembling the three-element name, explaining every downstream variant (Rees ap William / William ap Rees / Coke's "William ap Rice"); (2) the prison = Beaumaris — the same castle gaol whose custody the sheriff and Sir Richard Bulkeley fight over in the Answer (010); (3) the dying protestation verbatim: "as innocent of the facte whereof he was condemned as the child new borne" — the first sweep's paraphrase ("guiltless of the fault") badly undersold it; (4) "desiring this examinant to HEAR his confession ^{privately}" — the deathbed-confession framing.

004L · BANDS 7–8 (SRC Y 2687–4227, TORN FOOT) — ★★★ THE DYING CHARGE, VERBATIM + THE VOW

And thereupon by the ... (torn foot; continues 004R)

★★★ The taproot's moral engine, now verbatim: (1) "make knowne to the state" — CONFIRMED (first sweep hedged "[the State / authorities]"); (2) NEW — Lloyd "VOWED" to the dying man to do it: the bill against Barker was the performance of a deathbed vow; (3) the "direction" delivered here = the "instructions" of Towneley's account (001–002) = the great roll's contents = the bill's substance: the chain dying direction → roll → instructions → vetted bill is now closed end-to-end across the two depositions.

004R · BANDS 1–2 (SRC Y 82–1324) — THE COMPOSITION CLAIM ("COLLECTED HIMSELF"); THE BULKELEY-PROCUREMENT DENIAL; AN ADMISSION OPENS

... [And thereupon by the] instrucions of those writings, & by such collecions as this ex[aminan]t had collected himself [against the ^{said} Sir M[r] Barker & others], [he caused] the saied Bill to be Drawne & putt into this Ho: Courte, without the [pro]curement, advise or intreaty of [S[i]r Richard?] [B]ulkley kn[igh]t, Daniell Bulkley, [Tristram?] [/...] Willia[m] Bulkley, Launcelott Bulkley ¶4D-4 CONTEST (B7, TOP TNA): the row-anchored census reads "Daniell Bulkley, or willm" DIRECTLY — NO slot between Daniell and William; answer-4 list = FOUR members [R6-slot-name (Kt), Daniell, willm, Lancelott]; the only name-slot is R6's tail before "Bulkley Kt" (letterforms favor (T)riftram △ but ×4 anaphoric "the fd Rich" tokens require Richard named here); Tristram otherwise enters only in answer 5; reconcile with ledger D6/zg4list], or of any other Bulkley ¶4D-4 △ (B8): eB rival "or o[ff] anie oth[er] [per]fon or (p)er]fons thereo[ff]" — "any other Bulkley" not attested; TNA-light], or either of them; But before the exhibitinge [or?] [con]trivinge thereof ¶4D-4 (B9): crop read "before the exhibitinge o[ff] the (f)d bill" — no "[con]trivinge" seen], this ex[aminan]t told the s[ai]d [S[i]r Richard?] [that] the bill this ex[aminan]t meant to exhibite [against] [B]arker [&] o[th]ers ... (the admission completes in bands 3–4)

★ Lloyd claims sole authorship of the compilation ("collected himself" — shielding counsel and the Bulkeleys), denies all Bulkeley procurement — and then the qualifying admission begins: he TOLD [Sir Richard?] beforehand what he meant to exhibit. Note the scribal "Sir→Mr Barker" correction (Barker was not a knight; cf. HLS "Sir Richard Barker").

004R · BANDS 3–4 (SRC Y 921–2264) — ★ THE WITNESS THEORY: BULKELEY TO TESTIFY; "HE WOULD FIRST SEE IT"; THE BILL BROUGHT AND READ

... [But before the exhibiting, this ex[aminan]t told the s[ai]d Sir Richard?] Bulkley that this ex[aminan]t had caused the same to be drawne ¶4D-4 CORRECTION (B10): a TILTED FULL LINE occupying a true row slot, not an interlineation ¶ [meant to exhibit] a bill against [M[r]] Barker & others [in]to this Ho: Courte, & that this ex[aminan]t meant to use him the s[ai]d [S[i]r] Rich[ard] Bulkley to testifie his knowledg touchinge the s[ai]d matters {struck line} ¶4D-4 RECOVERY (C1, TOP TNA): the struck line partially reads "W[ithdrawe] th[is] h[is] w[ite] [?]d th[is] ext [ae]quainted [un]to the [?]d [?]" — a struck clause about WITHDRAWING HIS SUIT, imperfectly cancelled ¶ ... [S[i]r] Richard willed this ex[aminan]t to bringe [him] the s[ai]d Bill to see, sayinge that he would first see it, yf this ex[aminan]t meant to use him as a wittnes; & so afterwards this ex[aminan]t brought the s[ai]d Bill unto the s[ai]d [S[i]r] Richard Bulkley, [who] read the same, [and] used these words ... (direct quotation — band 5)

★ Lloyd's account converges with Towneley's from the other side: Bulkeley's role was prospective WITNESS, not procurer — he demanded to see the bill first precisely because he was to testify; he read it. The heavily struck/interlined zone (an abandoned sentence about acquainting him) shows the answer being carefully reshaped — verification target for what was struck.

To the 5°. (continues band 7)

★ (1) Sir Richard's answer on reading the bill, quoted in the deposition's own reported-speech formula: "if you bring me as a witness, I will speak the truth" — the "affirmation" of Towneley's account, from Lloyd's side, in direct discourse; (2) the deposition's answer-5 mirrors 008's Art. 5 verbatim (write/send/speake; "direction or instruction for the framinge") and names the intermediary "W[illia]m

[P/F]enri[th?]" — evidently the same man as 008 Art. 5's interlined "Willia[m] [K]endrick[?]" ; two independent renderings of one uncertain name — prime verification-zoom pair.

005L • BANDS 1–4 (SRC Y 82–2264) — ANSWER 6: THE DENIAL, THEN ★★ THE BULKELEY LOAN + THE LIVING "WILLIAM AP REES, HIS FRIEND" + "THIRTIE[?] POWNDS"

To the 6. Four candidate families across passes: £13 / thirtie / ff—teen / ff—tie. SURFACED TO USER 2026-07-08] pownds & some shill[ings] ... (continues band 5)

★★★ Three first-order recoveries, all missed by the first sweep: (1) the Bulkeley loan — Lloyd borrowed a sum of Sir Richard in March, giving a bill of his hand for repayment — money DID pass Bulkeley→Lloyd, in documented loan form (the Court's maintenance theory had a real transaction to chew on; the Answer's "private Adversary" charge likewise); (2) the money-sender identified as a LIVING "W[illia]m ap Rees, his frend" (two-element name) — distinct from the executed "William ap Rees ap William" (three-element): the identity tension dissolves — the manuscript's insistent three-element naming for the dead man exists precisely to distinguish him from this living friend; (3) the sum reads "thirtie pownds & some shillings" (£30) — against the first-sweep/007 reading "£13" — and HLS's recital coincidentally also carries a "30li" figure (the alleged murder contract). Δ "thirtie vs thirtene," the loan amount, and the borrowe→lend strike are priority verification-zoom targets.

★★ (1) "in Channall Rowe" — Sir Richard's house was in Channel (Cannon) Row, Westminster — the London townhouse, NOT Anglesey; my 008 Art-7 reading "[N]ewbur[gh] [T]owne" must now be re-zoomed (it may read "Chanell Rowe" there too — the first-sweep "Newborough" for THIS clause was wrong either way); (2) the visit's business: a lease a LIVING BROTHER of the complainant would have taken "in the Countrey" — a third Lloyd brother now in the record (executed John; complainant Rees; this lessee brother); (3) the £30/£13 money came by "some of the Warden of the Fleet's servants" — not the Warden personally (refines 007's answer-14 and the Art-10 "men in livery" theme).

★ (1) "acquitted" twice more in the answer itself — the deposition and the instrument agree on acquittal language; (2) the estate is itemized far beyond the first sweep (money £20+, goods/apparel £10, colts, sheep, household stuff from the [grand?]mother, TWO Welsh tenement interests); (3) Amlwch confirmed in context (tenements in the parish of "Amblowghe"); the "Tyddyn —" names are new verification targets; (4) a struck father-money passage shows the answer being restructured — the father's sums then given after the acquittal clause.

★★★ Three recoveries, all missed by the first sweep: (1) the courier has a NAME, inserted by interline: "Anthonie[?]" [Leadman the Warden of the ffleets Man] — the recurring anonymous figure (answer 6's "some of the Warden of the ffleets servauntes"; answer 10's "the Warden of the ffleets Man" who attended him; Art. 10's men-in-livery theme) resolves into a named individual; the first-sweep forename "Humfrey" is now doubtful ("Anthonie" fits the strokes better) — △ re-zoom the interline (extends queue item d'); (2) part of the money went to "[M^r]/W[illia]m Jones, this ex[aminan]ts Atturney in this Courte — new at line level (the 2026-07-01 verification-pass zoom had already caught "Mr [J]ones" in the money chain; the re-sweep now supplies his ROLE): Lloyd's Star Chamber attorney of record, receiving the William-ap-Rees money directly — the money's use was LITIGATION FUNDING through a named attorney (this is the very transaction pattern the Court's maintenance theory targets, and the answer volunteers it as innocent); forename re-zoom needed; (3) the letters denial: "had not ^{to his} remembraunce written anie Lettres since his imprisonment" — still "to the same Interrogatory," so Art. 14 bundled maintenance-money + letters; (4) "To the 15° & 16.: he is not appointed to be examined" — the joint decline. The selective administration now interlocks perfectly: of Arts. 13–16, Towneley (the drawer) answered 13, 15, 16; Lloyd (the party) answered ONLY 14 — complementary halves of one instrument, no overlap, no gap.

007 · BANDS 5–6 (SRC Y 2083–3263) — ★★ THE DEPONENT'S AUTOGRAPH: "RES AP JHON[?] LLOID[E]"; THEN BLANK LEAF WITH VERSO SHOW-THROUGH

(tail of "appointed to be examined" + a paraph/flourish) /

(second hand, smaller and more angular than the clerk's, right-of-center): ⟨paraph-C⟩ Re(e)s[?] ap[?] ⟨Jh⟩on ⟨Ll⟩oid(e?) (stroke order per 4D-7: LEADING PARAPH [the big C-bowl — RESOLVED as separate from the Ll-ligature, which sits mid-signature] · token 1 · "ap" · "Jhon" [the ff-like secretary Jh-] · Ll-ligature + "loid[e]") ¶4D-7 (q-hh, △△ WISH-FULFILMENT-RISK class): token 1 shows a doubled-e lean → possibly "Rees" PLENE vs the earlier "Res"; eB keeps Res/Rees/Reed-class ALL live —

NO reading asserted (the scribe-hand "Rees" at answer-14's "willm ap Rees" is a different hand, context only). Token 2 "ap"-lean holds (flourished-a double-loop + p-descender). Token 3 THREE-WAY: "Jhon" (this file + 4D-7 lean) vs "Ev[a]n[?]" (z7sig zoom, ledger A7, which downgraded "Jhon") — note BOTH have documentary pulls (catalogue/HLS "Rees ap John Lloyd" vs caption "Rees ap Jevan Ll[o]ud"), so wish-fulfilment risk runs in BOTH directions; TNA MANDATORY, names above all. "Redd by" alternate stays disfavored ✓eB-lean (no b-ascender in token 2)]]

(band 6: blank leaf; mirrored show-through of several cursive lines — ink on the UNSCANNED verso? possibly the filing endorsement — ⚠ note for the professional TNA order: request the verso of membrane 007)

★★ (1) The complainant SIGNS his own examination — the subscription matches the deponent's full name as the catalogue and HLS give it (Rees ap John Lloyd/Lloyde): the deposition closes with an autograph, exactly parallel to Towneley's autograph close on 003L — both examinations are signature-authenticated instruments; (2) alternate parse "Redd by Jhon Lloide" ("read by ...") considered and disfavored — the first stroke-group reads "Res" not "Redd," and a read-back note would be in the clerk's hand; ⚠ re-zoom (new queue item i) to settle "Jhon" and the paraph; (3) the verso show-through is POSITIVE evidence of unscanned writing on this leaf's back — the record copy (RC8368179, 10 scans) may not capture it.

★★★ LLOYD DEPOSITION COMPLETE (003R–007, re-sweep 2026-07-02, 40 bands). The full arc: sworn party-examination of the complainant Rees ap John Lloyd, prisoner in the Fleet — answers 1–12 (003R–006R: the murders, the acquittal, the dying charge + vow, the bill's composition, the Bulkeley witness-theory, the loan, the living friend's money, Channel Row, the estate, the four-forum campaign, the conference denials, the sureties) → answer 13 DECLINED → answer 14 (maintenance-money accounting: courier + attorney + letters denial) → answers 15–16 DECLINED → autograph subscription. Selective administration interlocks with Towneley's deposition without overlap or gap: of the drawer-directed tail (13–16), Towneley answered 13/15/16, Lloyd only 14. The examination is answer-side evidence of the Court's maintenance theory (Art. 14 ↔ answer 14 verbatim mirror) — the same theory the 009 verification reading "maynetenaunces" fixed on the instrument side.
