

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

JOSEPH KIRCHNER,

Plaintiff,

v.

MIKE JOHNSON, et al.,

Defendants.

Case: 1:25-cv-02735 JURY DEMAND

Assigned To : Reyes, Ana C.

Assign. Date : 8/19/2025

Description: TRO/PI (D-DECK)

Civil Action No. 25-cv-_____

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO ELECTRONICALLY FILE

1. Plaintiff JOSEPH KIRCHNER, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court for leave to electronically file pleadings, motions, and other documents in this matter pursuant to Local Civil Rule 5.4 and the Court's discretionary authority to permit pro se electronic filing.
2. This constitutional challenge involves complex legal issues spanning multiple government branches with extensive documentary evidence including twenty-six (26) exhibits requiring efficient case management that electronic filing would facilitate.

Clerk, U.S. District & Bankruptcy
Court for the District of Columbia

3. Plaintiff demonstrates technical competence for electronic filing through professional document preparation, comprehensive legal research, and technical background in software development and mathematical modeling.

4. Plaintiff certifies that he has reviewed the Clerk's Office online CM/ECF tutorial materials available on the Court's website and is prepared to complete any additional tutorial requirements as directed by the Court to ensure full compliance with electronic filing procedures."

5. Electronic filing serves judicial efficiency by enabling automated docketing, streamlined document management, and efficient service on multiple government defendants who routinely use the CM/ECF system.

6. No prejudice results to defendants or the Court from granting electronic filing permission, as government counsel exclusively use electronic filing and the Court's electronic case management systems are designed to accommodate complex federal litigation.

7. Case complexity involving multiple defendants, extensive exhibits, and constitutional claims affecting government operations makes electronic filing essential for effective case administration and judicial economy.

8. Plaintiff commits to strict compliance with all CM/ECF requirements, Local Rules, and electronic filing procedures, and understands that violation of electronic filing rules may result in immediate revocation of filing privileges.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court GRANT this Motion for Leave to Electronically File and permit Plaintiff to access the CM/ECF system for all filings in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
